The Monster Spotter's Handbook by Matt Cherry

When 11-year-old Edwin receives a strange handbook, he learns that he is the last and only person alive who can catch Monsters. And so begins a unique and illustrated commentary of his page-turning adventures. With the Bogspotter, the frozen Yomp, an Oober Beast and mention of a snot-filled Platypus, children aged 8 upwards will not need to be persuaded to read this. Our prediction – The Monster Spotter's Handbook will be a runaway hit and one which readers may well devour in one sitting.

The Suitcase Kid by Jacqueline Wilson

Andrea West's parents have divorced and she really doesn't want to move home.

The Falcon's Malteser by Anthony Horowitz

The first book in the Diamond Brothers series. When a lot of money is left in the hands of Tim Diamond, he suddenly has every criminal looking for him. This series is ideal to add you your collection of books.

Lizzie Dripping by Helen Cresswell

Everyone in the village where Lizzie lives thinks she daydreams – so it's no surprise that no one believes her when she says she's seen a witch.

The Great Elephant Chase by Gillian Cross

When the elephant came to town, Tad and Cissie went to the show like everyone else. Little did they know it would change their lives forever.

Give Peas A Chance by Morris Gleitzman

14 extremely funny short stories, including 'Surprise your mum with a chainsaw', 'be a bigger star than Tom Cruise', 'rescue your family with a tomato', 'send your dad into a panic with a tractor', and 'upset your auntie with ten kilos of chocolate'.

Operation Gadgetman! by Malorie Blackman

Beans calls her dad 'Gadgetman' because of the amazing gadgets he invents – everything from exploding biscuits to Spy Kits.

Edie and the Box of Flits by Kate Wilkinson

When Edie finds an unclaimed box at the Lost Property Office, she could never have anticipated what might be inside. Opening it, she discovers strange and wonderful creatures – the Flits – and they need Edie’s help, fast. This sparkling and heartwarming adventure story with a fast-paced plot will keep readers gripped from beginning to end.

My Brother is a Superhero by David Solomons

A prize winning story about Luke who goes off to the toilet only to return and find his brother has been turned into a superhero by a passing alien. A very funny page-turner.

The Legend of Captain Crow’s Teeth by Eoin Colfer

Not much scares brothers Will and Marty Woodman until they visit a small seaside town famous for its frightening ghost.
